CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Jan. 13, 1843.

In SENATE communications were received, one from the Secretary of State concercerning contracts made by the Board of Navy Commissioners. A number of petitions were then presented, among them being some for and against the repeal of the Bankrupt Law, and one asking that Amos Kendall be relieved from losses arising out of a suit brought by Stockton & Stokes.

A large number of reports from Committees concerning private claims were then read, and some of them acted on, when the Senate adjourned to Monday.

In the House, Mr. Weller, on leave, pre sented resolutions from the Ohio Legislature, praying the repeal of the Bankrupt praying Congress to pass the Exchequer Bill. He moved that the House go into 28. Committee of the Whole to take it np .-Lost-93 ayes to 128 noes.

Mr. Everett moved to suspend the ru'es of the House for the purpose of taking up the bill to repeal the Bankrupt Law. The motion, requiring a vote of two-thirds, was ost-the vote standing 119 ayes to 70 noes.

Private Claims then came up. The joint resolution establishing as a rule of the House that claims once reported against by the Committee, the report having been concurred in by the House, shall never come up again before Congress except by petion from the claimant, showing that new evidence has been discovered or pointing out some error in the action of the Conmittee, after being discussed and amended, was rejected 95 to 103

On motion of Mr. Fillmore, the Committee of Ways and Means were discharged from the further consideration of appropriations for sundry fortifications.

Resolutions offered by Mr. Underwood ordering the printing of a map of Oregon Territory and requesting the Secretary of the Navy to furnish a copy of the report of Lieut. Wilkes concerning his examination of the Oregon Territory, were adopted.

A resolution offered by Mr. Garrett Davis authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to establish in Kentucky and Missouri agencies to test and purchase water-rotted hemp for the use of the Navy was adopted.

SATURDAY, Jan. 14. The SENATE did not sit.

In the House, after petitions had been ofered, two resolutions by Mr. Hubbard in- ordered printed. structing the Militia Committee to make inquirers in regard to returns of the militia and the distribution of arms were adopted. A great number of petitions and unimportant resolutions were then presented. Mr. G. Davis cave notice of a bill to re duce the number of men employed by Government at the Port of New York.

Mr. Mark A. Cooper submitted a resolu tion directing the Committee of Claims to inquire into the expediency of paying to Georgia a balance paid by that State for volunteers during the Indian troubles.

The bill to refund Gen, Jackson's then came up. Mr. Hunt made an able argument against it, and had not concluded then the morning bour expired. Communications from the Navy, and from Gov Doty, were then laid before the House, the bill to provide for the sale of the real estate of infants in the District of Columbia was passed and the House adjourned, Mr. Adans having the floor for Monday on the bill for the relief of West Floaida.

Monday, January 16. In the Senate, Mr. Bayard reported a bill making extra compensation to persons em-ployed in the Exploring Expedition beyond term of service for which they were uner contract to serve. The bill is accommied by a report.

It be some consolation to those who have ernestly deprecated the repeal as first prosed, to learn that, on motion of Mr. Tillshast, the committee was further instrucby a large majority to report, in addion to and as part of the bill, a proviso that his repeal shall not extend to or affect any ase which at the time this act goes into flect, shall be pending before any court, or to any proceeding which at said time hall have been legally commenced, and ich shall be then in progress, and under virtue of the act hereby repealed." If the Bankrupt Law be repealed at this tsion, therefore—as we have no houbt that will be-the prediction may be easily zarded that it will be with a provision bstantially the same as the above."

Judiciary Committee, of a resolution to reming the foreign value of our imports, and fer back to that Committee the bill (just reanother from the Secretary of the Navy con- ported) to repeal the Bankrupt Law, with instructions to report a bill to repeal the voluntary provisions, &c.

After farther dis-orderly conversation at some length by various gentlemen, Mr. Wise got the floor and moved the previous question, (which, if sustained, would cut off the motion to re-commit, and bring a direct vote on the engrossment.) The previous question was seconded -Ayes 91, Noes 83. The morning hour here expired, and the friends of the law, anxious to preserve it at least one day longer in the House, called for the orders of the day, and thus this bill was laid over.

The subject, however, was not yet dispo. sed of. The other bill (Mr. Everett's) to repeal the Bankrupt Law came up in order, Mr. Marshall having the floor, who, instead Mr. Wise presented a memorial signed by 1200 citizens of Baltimore co., Md., ved the previous question, which, after some of delivering the long deferred speech, moconfusion, was seconded: Ayes 110; Noes

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

The Picayune thus instructs its readers. and people generally :-Let the business of every body else alone. and attend to your own. Don't buy what you dont want. Use every hour to advantage, and study to make even leisure hours useful. Think twice before you throw away a dollai; remember you will have another to make for it. Find recreation in looking after your business; and so your business will not be neglected in looking after recreation. Buy low, sell fair, take care of the profits. Look over your books regularly; and if you can find an error of a cent, trace it out; Should a stroke of misfortune come upon you in trade, retrench and work harder, but never 'fly the track.' Confront difficulties with unflinching perseverance and they disappear at last. Though you should even fail in the struggle; you will be honored; but shrink from the track and you will be despised. By following these rules, however, you 'need not say fail.

The deceased had been unwell for a few days, yet attended upon her domestic duties. On the evening previous to her departure, she retired at her usual hour. About 4 o'clock in the morning Mr. R. discovered that she slept unusually sound, he endeavored to to awake her, but she was insensible to his solicitations. He arose, called up the remaining members to her relief. Her eyes ed npon earthly friends and her ears were then deaf to their plaintive and anxious requests. A physician was sent for but it was too late, an occasional gasp deno-ted that the flickering taper was not extinct. She lingered thus until about 8 o'clock when her pulse ce ased to beat-the spirit had
